Respondent

HEARING REQUEST FOR IMPOUNDED VEHICLE

- The registered owner may file a hearing request with the Clerk at any time after impoundment solely to regain possession of impounded property by contesting the compliance of the impoundment. A registered lienholder may request the impounded property be released into its possession only through a motion to intervene as permitted under § 1005.31.
- If the presiding officer determines, by order, that the impoundment was not proper, the impounded property may be immediately reclaimed by the registered owner without need to pay a penalty or cost associated with the impoundment.
- If the presiding officer determines that the impoundment was proper, the impounded property may be returned to the respondent, by order, upon payment of towing and storage fees and costs, and either of the following conditions, or both, if ordered by the presiding officer.
 - (i) The impounded property will be inspected by the Enforcement Department to ensure that it no longer represents a threat to public safety.
 - (ii) Payment of the collateral the presiding officer finds necessary to secure the attendance of the respondent at a subsequent hearing regarding the impoundment.
 - (iii) An order of the presiding officer entered as provided in this subsection is subject to the interlocutory appeal procedure in § 1005.131.
- A citation may be contested by filing a request with the Clerk for a hearing within 15 days after the date of service. Requests for hearings may be made by completing the applicable portion of the citation and serving it upon the Clerk or by appearing at TLD Headquarters and completing a hearing request form.
